

VOICE of OC

INTERNSHIP PROGRAM

---

FALL APPLICATION DEADLINE: AUGUST 1

---

Voice of OC is a non-profit investigative newsroom focused on daily coverage of Orange County's city halls and government agencies, with an eye toward providing real-time information that allows people to make a difference.

FALL INTERNSHIP

We are currently filling slots for our summer internship program. The program runs for 13 weeks between September and early December. The program is only for students receiving academic credit for the internship.

Available academic internships:

- Reporting (2)
- Digital media (1)
- Marketing (1)
- Photography (1)

"Working with Voice of OC not only helped me understand how local government functions and how to report on it, but – more importantly – I have gained the confidence to report on and help hold local leaders accountable. It's something no classroom can teach you."

-Spencer Custodio, Voice of OC intern

APPLICATION

Send the following items to Sonya Quick (squick@voiceofoc.org) with #vocsummerinternship in the subject line:

- Your resume
- Your objective for this internship (2-5 sentences describing why you want to be a VOC intern)
- Three learning goals for this internship
- Three ideas for this internship (these will be story ideas for reporters and photographers)
- Three examples of your work (that are relevant to your desired internship)