

Orange County Supervisor Don Wagner Endorses Kevin Muldoon for Supervisor

Kevin Muldoon Has Now Received the Support of a Majority of Republicans on the Board of Supervisors

Newport Beach, CA – Today, Newport Beach Mayor Pro Tem Kevin Muldoon announced that Orange County Supervisor Don Wagner has endorsed his candidacy for the 2nd Supervisorial District. Having recently received the support of Orange County Board of Supervisors Chairman Andrew Do, Muldoon now has the support of a majority of Republicans on the Board.

Supervisor Wagner is a practicing attorney with over 20 years of dedicated public service. Previously he has served as a community college district trustee, a state legislator, and as the Mayor of Irvine.

“Kevin Muldoon is a consensus builder who will protect you from government overreach and preserve liberty. He brings a fresh perspective to the Board of Supervisors. As the father of a young son, Kevin will have the next generation in mind in all he does on behalf of Orange County.”

“I am honored to have been endorsed by Supervisor Wagner. As a public servant he built an impressive record of commitment to fiscal responsibility, public safety, educational excellence, and economic growth. I look forward to working with him on the Orange County Board of Supervisors,” commented Kevin Muldoon.

Since announcing, Muldoon has been endorsed by Congressman Dana Rohrabacher, Orange County Board of Supervisors Chairman Andrew Do, Mesa Water President Shawn Dewane, Newport Beach Mayor Brad Avery, Former Mayor and Newport Beach Councilman Duffy Duffield, Councilman Noah Blom, Mission Viejo Councilman Greg Raths, Atlas PAC, Hispanic 100, Take Back California, Crime Survivors PAC and other local elected leaders and groups.

The Second District encompasses the cities of Costa Mesa, Cypress, Huntington Beach, La Palma, Los Alamitos, Newport Beach, Seal Beach, Stanton, the unincorporated area of Rossmoor, and portions of Buena Park and Fountain Valley.

ABOUT KEVIN MULDOON

Muldoon was elected to the City Council in 2014, and re-elected in 2018 with 68% of the vote- the largest victory by a candidate in a Newport Beach city election. While in office Muldoon voted to cut taxes and fees, refunded money to ratepayers, fought against bond debt, and introduced a Charter Amendment that required a popular vote to approve city issued debt. A lifelong resident of Orange County, Kevin received his Juris Doctor from Chapman University School of Law and served as a Deputy District Attorney in the Orange County District Attorney's office. Currently, he is an executive for a local technology company. He lives in Newport Beach with his wife and son.

JOIN OUR TEAM TODAY

