ORANGE COUNTY SUPERVISOR ANDREW DO ENDORSES MAYOR MICHAEL VO FOR SUPERVISOR

Fountain Valley, CA - Today, Fountain Valley Mayor Michael Vo announced the endorsement of Supervisor Andrew Do, Chairman of the Orange County Board of Supervisors, in Mayor Vo's campaign for County Supervisor, District 2. Mayor Vo is running to replace Representative Michelle Steel after her successful congressional campaign left the seat vacant.

"I am proud to offer my support to Mayor Michael Vo for County Supervisor. He is the embodiment of a true public servant. His life experiences in fleeing Communism, rebuilding his life, and giving back by serving his community for more than a decade speaks volumes about Mayor Vo's commitment to public service. As a small business owner, Mayor Vo will bring a pro-business approach to issues on the Board. I look forward to working with him on the Board of Supervisors," said Supervisor Do.

Mayor Vo added, "I am honored to receive the support from a leader like Supervisor Do. I look forward to working with him on the critical issues facing our County."

Mayor Vo announced his candidacy for Supervisor on January 15, 2021. Since then, he has received a groundswell of support, raising over $100,000 in less than two weeks. Since his announcement, Mayor Vo has announced his intention to create a COVID-19 Vaccination Registration Program, assisting the most vulnerable with registering for a vaccination appointment, and Community Service Center as Supervisor.
