PETITION FOR ARRAIGNMENT ON PROBATION VIOLATION

LOPEZ, Florentino Junior
A-419063; Court No. 25CF1486

CIRCUMSTANCES OF THE VIOLATION

According to the records of SAPD (DR#26-21059), on October 1, 2026, the probationer was arrested for allegations of violating Section PC 69. Further, according to Corporal Leo Gonzalez, the probationer failed to submit to search and seizure and resisted officers when told to comply. A copy of the police report has not been received as of this writing. Subsequently, a probation hold was placed on the aforementioned violations, and he was transported and booked in the Orange County Jail.

PROGRESS ON PROBATION

The probationer's progress on probation is considered poor, as reflected by his recent arrest. The undersigned received the probationer's case via transfer request due to his affiliation with the Santa Nita criminal street gang. He last reported to probation on July 22, 2026. On said date, to his credit, he reported he continued working a landscaping job Monday through Friday, from 6am-3pm. The probationer was contacted at his residence on July 8, 2026, with no issues to note. Further, a search conducted yielded negative results.

According to Probation records, the probationer owes $14,151.78 in restitution. To date, he has paid $0.00 toward his balance.

EVALUATION AND DISCUSSION

Appearing before the Court on his first Probation Violation Hearing is 28-year-old Florentino Junior Lopez, who is currently supervised for being in possession of an un-registered loaded firearm in public, concealed loaded un-registered firearm in a vehicle, hit and run with property damage and resisting public or peace officer. It appears the probationer has no intention of remaining law abiding and rehabilitating within the community. Taking the aforementioned into consideration, it is felt the probationer is unappreciative of his grant of probation and this opportunity provided by the Court. Therefore, the following recommendation is respectfully submitted for the Court's consideration.

PC 1203.25 (AB1228) CONSIDERATION

Based on the available information at the writing of this report, it is felt release pursuant to PC 1203.25 (AB 1228) should be denied based on the information below:

Serious Criminal History with Community Safety Concerns:

The probationer is a documented member of the Santa Nita criminal street gang.

RECOMMENDATION

In view of the foregoing, it is respectfully recommended that the probationer be found in violation of probation, that probation be revoked and reinstated, and the probationer be ordered to serve 90 days in custody.

Furthermore, it is felt release pursuant to PC 1203.25 (AB 1228) should not be considered. Further, that upon release from custody, the probationer be ordered to report to the Probation Department within 72 hours.
